

DINING IN THE DARK?

13 September 2017

WHAT IS THIS?

Have you ever Dined in the Dark? Come join us at On the Border Mexican Grill and Cantina on September 13 from 5:30 pm. to 8:30 pm. What are some of the ordinary challenges you get when you can't see what's right in front of you? It makes for great conversation when your friend asks you to pass the salt but maybe no one is quite sure where it is.

Come out and support EMVIA by having a dinner adventure with Master of Ceremonies David Fitzsimmons and special guests as table hosts. There will be a live auction from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 for heavily discounted Great Tucson Beer Festival tickets and more.

WHAT TO EXPECT

At this adventurous event fundraiser you and guests will be served your menu items, but there is a catch: everyone will be under blindfold! Some will try to be civilized; others simply use their hands to seek out new food on their plates. No one is looking! Don't worry about making a mess or being clumsy because everyone else will be blindfolded too! Keep in mind this is all in good fun so there's no judgment just a good time to be had by all for a great cause.

TICKETS

The ticket price of $25 per person includes the full meal plus beverage, tax and and gratuity. Now even though the price does not include adult libations such as the wonderful Cactus Margarita with Prickly Pear and Agave Nectar, you can find your I.D. without looking, right? To ensure your spot will be saved for this event, call us at 520-722-4160, email info@emvia.org, or mail a check to EMVIA, 8440 East 25th Street, Tucson 85710, and we'll send you the tickets right away.
